Snoopy Now | Port Adelaide Guineas

Jockey Connor Murtagh, Darryl Hewitt & Julie Preston

Port Adelaide Guineas

Over the past month, we've witnessed remarkable victories by SA Bred horses, starting with Snoopy Now, who clinched the Port Adelaide Guineas at Morphettville on April 12th.

Snoopy Now, trained by Darryl Hewitt and co-owned by Julie Preston, has demonstrated exceptional talent, having missed the top 3 only twice in his last nine starts.

This Sir Prancealot gelding was bred by Cornerstone Stud and Pat Donovan, Don Bloodstock SA.

He is now set to compete in the South Australian Derby on Saturday, alongside the 2024 Victorian Derby winner, Goldrush Guru, who was bred by The Guru Breeding Syndicate, trained by Andrew Gluyas, Morphettville.

Oakbank Easter Carnival

SA Bred horses prominently featured at the Oakbank Carnival over Easter.

An exceptional effort witnessed in the Hills Railway Stakes won by Volcanic Express, bred by Peter and Valmai Toole of Ducatoon Park.

The race results also included Sir Sway, bred by Bruce and Jason Jaensch in second, and Extremely Lucky, bred by Brenton and Elizabeth Parker, trained by Will Clarken and Niki O'Shea, finishing third.

The 2025 Sportsbet Adelaide Racing Carnival kicked off over the weekend with Sangster Stakes Day at Morphettville.

SA Bred horses were well represented, with 14 runners participating in Group and Listed races.

The standout performance came in the Sportsbet John Hawkes Stakes, where Watchme Win, bred by the Toorak Thoroughbred Breeding Trust, took home the top honours, followed by Volcanic Express and Press Down, bred by Mr IP Perkins, all SA Bred.

We eagerly anticipate the fierce competition in the upcoming two weeks of the Sportsbet Adelaide Racing Carnival and cheer on our SA Bred competitors.

NEW CASE A REMINDER TO HORSE BREEDERS OF 4 YEAR LIMIT TO CLAIM GST CREDITS

Navigating GST in the Horse Breeding and Racing Industry

One of the most challenging and debated tax issues in the horse breeding and racing sector is defining whether an activity qualifies as an "enterprise" for GST purposes.

A GST registered business can claim back GST on its creditable acquisitions, known as input tax credits, and is obliged to levy GST on its taxable supplies.

For further detail and a detailed recent case account, please follow the link.
