HIGHLIGHTS FOR SA BRED

Announced earlier this month at the Racing SA Industry awards, Goldrush Guru, SA Bred by The Guru Breeding Syndicate and trained by Andrew Gluyas took out top honours for the Champion Racehorse of the Year for 24-25 SA Racing Awards.

Sir Sway, bred by Bruce Jaensch and trained by Sue and Jason Jaensch in Naracoorte, was honored as the Best Performed Horse for the 2024-2025 season. His remarkable performance came at Morphettville in the Goodwood G1, where he finished in second place.

Winner of last year's Listed McKenzie Stakes, Angel Capital, triumphed in the Listed MVRC Chautauqua Stakes (1200m) with authority on Sept 6th. Bred by SA Breeder David Peacock, Angel Capital sold through the Mill Park Stud draft at the 2023 Inglis Premier yearling sale, purchased by Gregory Ho and Upper Bloodstock, then acquired by Yulong in February 25. Looking ahead, James Harron Bloodstock is thrilled to announce a partnership with Yulong for The Everest 2025, with Angel Capital confirmed as the runner in the James Harron Bloodstock slot.

Watchme Win, bred by Harry Perks of Toorak Thoroughbred Breeding and trained by Andrew Gluyas, is part-owned by Harry alongside other local owners.

On September 13, Watchme Win claimed victory in the Wylie Stakes with an impressive performance at Morphettville. Looking ahead, Watchme Win is set to compete in the Gilgai Stakes this Saturday at Flemington. Click here for the Breednet story about Watchme Win.

At only her third start, Snow Mercy shone at Moonee Valley, with the daughter of Swettenham Stud's Toronado triumphing in the G3 Scarborough Stakes under the guidance of trainer Phillip Stokes and jockey Lachy Neindorf. Bred by Trevor and Beth Robertson, the filly was raised at Mill Park Stud but didn't achieve the reserve at the Magic Millions yearling sale.

Retained by Trevor & Beth along with several other owners, Snow Mercy's victory in the Group 3 MVRC Scarborough Stakes brings her record to two wins and one second place from just three starts. Congratulations to all involved.

One to watch - Burning Bright, a 5yo bay Mare bred by Harry Perks of Toorak Thoroughbred Breeding trust, raced with family and trained by Andrew Gluyas, Morphettville.

Sired by Fiorente out of the dam Summah's Touch, Burning Bright has placed or won in her last 5 starts.

On 20th Sept 2025 at Morphettville, Burning Bright was ridden by Taylor Johnstone and scored its most significant win to date
