DECEMBER 24

Dec 24 On Track | Jan 25 Heading to the Sales

The $500,000 Ballarat Cup (2000m) was won by five-year-old gelding Berkeley Square, bred by David Peacock and raised at Mill Park. Trained by Dan O'Sullivan and ridden by Jaylah Kennedy, he achieved a popular hometown victory, bringing his record to eight wins and eight placings from 26 starts, with total prizemoney of $1.6 million. Congratulations to David, Mill Park and all connections.

The Inevitable - Conquering Stakes

Despite being a nine-year-old, the Dundee gelding The Inevitable is not slowing down, achieving his 17th career victory in the Listed Conquering Stakes (1400m) at Launceston on Wednesday, December 11th. With a record of 17 wins from 41 starts, he has proven to be more than just a star in Tasmania, accumulating earnings of $2,079,650. Congratulations to his South Australian breeder, Alistair McFarlane, Tori Park Stud.

Mill Park Lot 646 Too Darn Hot | Maybe Discreet

Mill Park is heading to the Magic Millions January Gold Coast Sales with a draft of 16 yearlings.

Kambula Stud has one under the draft of Glenbeigh Farm (Scone).

Wishing the very best of results to all.

Australia will host more million-dollar races than America and Europe combined in 2025; while locals are also embracing the sport with more than 140,000 people owning a share in a racehorse.

These statistics and more are included in the latest Aushorse Investor's Guide. The annual Investor's Guide pulls together the latest information on the Australian industry and is essential reading for anybody involved in racing or breeding globally.
