

COMPLIMENTARY EVENT

OPEN INVITATION TO ALL INDUSTRY PARTICIPANTS BREEDERS, OWNERS, TRAINERS, VETS, STUD STAFF

We invite everyone to a free event that promises to be highly informative
AGM & GUEST PRESENTER

- Professor Sam Franklin from the University of Adelaide is a clinical researcher and specialist in equine sports medicine, with a particular focus on cardio-respiratory causes of poor performance in equine athletes.
- Internationally renowned for her pioneering work on the development of overground endoscopy and is currently leading projects relating to upper airway dysfunction, equine asthma, exercise associated cardiac arrhythmia and sudden cardiac death, and gastric ulceration.
- Sam will present recent research findings on the yearling endoscopy process and associations between yearling laryngeal function and future race performance.

WHEN – WEDNESDAY 2ND OCTOBER 2024

WHERE – THE JUNCTION STABLE ROOM,

470 ANZAC HWY, MORPHETTVILLE

5.30PM – 6.00PM (COMPLIMENTARY WELCOME DRINK)

6.00PM – 6.15PM (SATB AGM)

6.15PM – 7.00PM (PROF. SAM FRANKLIN)

FOLLOWED BY QUESTION TIME

Concluding the event, meals will be available at the Junction Bistro, serving until 8.30 pm

Professor Sam Franklin proudly brought to you by AgriFutures Australia & SA Thoroughbred Breeders.

COMPLIMENTARY WELCOME DRINK ON ARRIVAL
WE ASK THAT YOU RSVP FOR SEATING & CATERING

Georgie 0419 844 502

office@sabreeders.com.au

